

Use digital whistleblowing portal

Go to whistleblowing portal

If you would like to use our digital whistleblowing portal, click on the button shown above. This will redirect you to an external page. We would like to point out that this website complies with all data protection regulations iSd DSGVO and that the cookies and external services on it are used exclusively for the purpose of technical requirements and are necessary for these. In particular, these are responsible for the essential functionality as well as for the security of the website. All personal data transmitted by visiting the website, in particular the IP address, will not be used by us in any way to determine the person behind it based on this additional information. Furthermore, all resulting information is irrevocably deleted in accordance with legal requirements. This data is also irretrievably deleted after the session has expired. This ensures the possibility of anonymous reporting in any case. For more information, please refer to the portal's privacy policy.